Code of Conduct

At-a-Glance

If you experience or witness behavior that is not in line with our Code of Conduct, tell a Conduct Team Member (look for person with rainbow bandana or ask at info desk) or email ethics@archive.org.

Respect

- Treat others with dignity and kindness regardless of gender, orientation, disability, appearance, race, age, religion. etc.
- Make sure you have enthusiastic, ongoing consent in all interactions
- Respect the privacy of others, and avoid photographing those with red lanyards
- Follow Chatham House Rules when mentioned (neither the identity or the affiliation of any participant may be revealed)

Collaboration

- Be open to new ideas and learn from others
- Bring up your own ideas in conversations
- In cases of strong disagreement, try to move on and stay focused on the goal of the discussion
- Talk to people you haven't met yet

Inclusion

- Rule of 1: Make 1 point and then let others speak
- Rule of n: If there are n people in the group, speak 1/nth of the time

- Be inclusive of people with other backgrounds
- Avoid jargon or terms that may not be understood by the entire group

Communication

- Avoid interrupting people
- Be concise with your points and allow others to participate
- In a misunderstanding, try to assume the most benign interpretation and then seek clarification
- Address problematic speech or behavior when it occurs, if possible, even if it wasn't addressed to you
